

Route of New York-Buffalo Thruway in Kingston Area

This is the official map of the New York State Public Works Department showing that the route of the Thruway in the area of this city, brings it across The Ontonagon Trail (Route 28) within a mile west of Kingston, as originally planned. It will also cross Highway 209 and other roads in the eastern section of the county.

Newburgh Wants Thruway Bridge

Chamber of Commerce Writes Governor Dewey Asking for Survey

There's a concentrated move under way in Newburgh for a thruway bridge between that city and Cornwall, according to the Newburgh News.

The newspaper, in a recent story, said that Frank Mahler, executive secretary of the Newburgh Chamber of Commerce was spearheading a campaign by industrialists, merchants, transportation officials and others for the bridge.

Mahler has written Governor Thomas E. Dewey, according to the press, requesting a survey of the Cornwall-Newburgh area, which he said is the most logical site for the thruway bridge.

The action in Newburgh was prompted by announcement from Albany to the effect that it is proposed to construct the new bridge in the vicinity of the Bear Mountain Bridge.

The News reported that James S. Bixby, division engineer, of the State Department of Public Works, answered in the negative when asked if any consideration has been given to a site north of Newburgh.

Mahler said sentiment appeared to favor construction of the bridge at the "narrows," south of Newburgh Bay.

Dewey Feels Good

New York, March 10 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was reported in excellent condition today after a shoulder operation for acute bursitis. The governor underwent an operation yesterday at the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center after a trip to New York from Albany the night before. The calcium growth in his right shoulder had bothered him at times ever since the 1948 presidential campaign. The operation was performed by Dr. Harrison L. McLaughlin.

Police were notified last night that George Mayr, 17 of 5 Wurts street, reported missing since 8 p. m. Tuesday, had returned home.

Map Shows Road to Cross Route 28 West of This City

Two proposed Hudson river bridges for handling state Thruway traffic will not interfere with local bridge plans, and the Thruway at Kingston will cross Route 28, the Ontonagon Trail, west of the city, a state official said today.

Tentative plans of the State Public Works Department call for Thruway-connected bridges over the Hudson in the Castleton and Peekskill areas, but no definite sites have been selected.

Francis Brown of the office of Bertram D. Tallamy, superintendent of the State Public Works Department, said both bridges figure in present planning and that the Thruway route will go west of the city as originally planned.

Earlier this year it was announced that state engineers also had considered an alternate plan for joining the Thruway with Route 9W in the Kingston area.

The state official said he had nothing definite to announce at this time on the status of the Kingston-Rhincliff bridge plans, but stressed that the proposed structure has no bearing on the other two.

Truman Housing Program Meets Difficulty in Senate

Washington, March 10 (AP)—A bill to carry out President Truman's request for middle-income cooperative housing program started down a rocky path in the Senate today.

Already sharply reduced in size by committee action, the proposed program faces more trouble from senators who want even more drastic revisions in the legislation. Originally, the administration called for $2,000,000,000 in government-backed loans to housing cooperatives made up of families whose income ranges from $2,400 to $4,700 a year.

In a compromise move in the Senate banking committee, the loan figure was cut to $1,000,000,

Woman Collapses Again on Stand

Mrs. Madsen Breaks 2nd Time; Gower Asks Acquittal

Frankfurt, Germany, March 10 (AP)—Brunette Yvette Madsen cried "I can't stand it" and then collapsed during her trial for murder today.

It was the second time the 22-year-old Brooklyn beauty broke down in the courtroom in which she is being tried for the shooting of her flatter husband.

The attractive mother of two children, pale and wan, listened to an impassioned 20-minute plea by her attorney, Elmo Gower of Cumberland, Md., for her acquittal. Then she cried out and fainted.

Mrs. Madsen slumped in her chair. A woman member of the air force, sitting beside her as an escort, administered smelling salts.

Count was recessed and Mrs. Madsen's father, Alfred Noack, Brooklyn carpenter, carried his daughter from the room.

Gower, in his summation, said Mrs. Madsen had an "insane fear of harm" the night that her husband was killed by a pistol shot in the living room of the couple's home near Rhein-Mann air base. He charged that the prosecution had failed to prove she was sane at the time of the shooting.

The prosecution rests shortly before with testimony from an army handwriting expert that Mrs. Madsen wrote a bitter note found near her husband's body.

The note referred to "the rat, the low creature," and said: "My husband will come home and beat me up. My only defense is to protect myself, which is to shoot him."

The prosecution contends the note was written by Mrs. Madsen when she returned home from a party at a friend's house a half hour before her husband, air force Lieutenant Andrew E. Madsen, was shot to death last October.

Laborites Win First Anglo Test

Fresh Trouble Faces Party Over Motion by Conservatives on Housing Still May Resign

If Amendment Is Passed Labor Might Quit and Bring Election

London, March 10 (AP)—Britain's Labor government squeaked past its first major parliamentary test last night. But the uneasy Laborites face fresh trouble in another crucial vote Monday.

By a 14-vote margin, 310 to 296, Prime Minister Attlee's Socialists beat back a Conservative motion aimed against the impending nationalization of the iron and steel industry. A defeat would have forced the government to resign only two weeks after it won a second term in a close general election.

Still ahead of the government—whose overall majority in the House of Commons was cut yesterday to only six seats—is a vote Monday on another Conservative motion. This deplores the government's failure to suggest housing program improvements in the speech it prepared for King George to deliver at Parliament's opening last Monday.

Like the nationalization census voted down yesterday, the housing motion proposes an amendment to the king's address. The government has said any such agreement is an issue of confidence. Labor leaders said that if beaten, they would resign and call a new election.

Might Be Tougher

The vote on housing may find it even tougher for the Labor government to keep all its members in line. Several Labor members of Parliament have criticized the government's housing record in the past.

Labor lost one seat of its tiny parliamentary majority yesterday when Conservative Florence Horsburgh defeated Laborite Rowland W. Cassola for the Moss side constituency of Manchester. The election had been delayed 15 days by the death of a previously-nominal Conservative candidate.

Parliamentary whips of both parties mustered the heaviest attendance in Commons since 1892 for yesterday's record vote. Labor got the votes of all its members who were not prevented from voting by illness or parliamentary positions—all but five of the party's members.

Nine Conservative members were missing from the balloting, but all nine Liberal members voted with the Tories.

More than 70 Labor M.P.'s are in the government administration. Many have offices away from the Parliament building. All were present for yesterday's vote, but the Independent Times pointed out today:

"The strain of making such efforts to stave off defeat would be intolerable in the long run."

Fined $100

Northampton, Mass., March 10 (AP)—John M. Gorey, 20, of South Deerfield, whose automobile killed a Smith College freshman from Huntington, N. Y., on the night of February 19, was fined $100 in District Court today for dangerous driving. Killed while walking with an escort from one Amherst College fraternity house to another was Joan M. Kuzmier, 18. Her companion, also from Huntington, L. I., was Robert R. Crump, an Amherst College student. He was unhurt.

No Date Is Set

Rome, March 10 (AP)—The date for the wedding of Ingrid Bergman and Roberto Rossellini is yet to be set. The Italian movie director's 10th birthday today. Likewise, said the attorney, Gino Sotis, as far as he knows the Swedish film star's five-week-old son, Renato Roberto, has not been baptized. The baby, born February 2, is to be baptized in the Catholic faith, according to Rossellini who officially registered the child as his son.

Barge Runs Away

A barge of Island Dock, Inc., equipped with cranes, was towed back to dock today after a short trip down the Rondout creek on its own. The craft broke its line and drifted toward the Hudson. It stopped along the east bank of the creek several hundred feet from the river and was towed back by a tug of the Reliance Marine Transportation & Construction Corp.

All Regulations Lifted

Albany, N. Y., March 10 (AP)—The last of the state's coal-saving regulations have been lifted. Coal Administrator Bertram D. Tallamy yesterday rescinded three orders that established priorities, required dealers to combine small anthracite with large anthracite, and rationed deliveries to dwellings, offices, factories and commercial buildings.

Hanley Calls On Party to Be for Public

New York, March 10 (AP)—The Republican party was urged by Lieutenant Governor Joe R. Hanley at a fund-raising gathering of last night to put the interests of the public above the interests of the party and "to take the people into its confidence."

Hanley spoke at the Hotel Commodore before an audience of about 650 persons at a $100-a-plate dinner sponsored by the Republican county committee of Westchester county. A spokesman estimated the gross proceeds at $60,000.

Livingston Platt, county committee chairman, told the audience that part of the money would be used to help defray the cost of a new committee headquarters at 214 Mamaroneck avenue. White Plains, and that the balance would be used for the fall campaign. He said the Democrats plan to "pour money" into an effort to defeat Republicans in Westchester county this fall and that "we've got no alternative but to meet that threat head on."

Hanley declared the Republicans must "put above our own party selfishness the feeling that our nation must get on a safe highway and we Republicans are determined to have it there."

Nominate Winners

Decrying centralization of both party and government control, Hanley said, "I do not believe in one-man control no matter who the man may be" and he added that "we ought to take our party and put it in the hands of the voters and let them make up the ticket."

The Republican party is to win again in this country its got to take the people into its confidence," he said.

The lieutenant governor expressed the opinion that there were two "pivotal" elections to be held this fall, one in Ohio where Senator Robert A. Taft is up for re-election and the other in New York state. If the Republicans lose in New York, he said, "our party will have been struck a staggering blow in the next national elections."

He added that he favors nominating "the people who can win regardless of where they live or what their names are."

Hanley also praised Mr. Platt for informing his audience at the outset of the evening that the reason the dinner was held was (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Bulgaria Accuses U. S. of Falsehoods

Shipkov Case Is Called Attempt to Cover Up on Espionage

London, March 10 (AP)—Bulgaria accused the Voice of America and Secretary of State Dean Acheson today of "scandalous lying" about the Michael Shipkov case.

Shipkov, a 39-year-old former translator at the U. S. legation in Sofia, was sentenced Wednesday to 15 years imprisonment on a charge of spying for America. Last Saturday the State Department released a sworn statement by Shipkov that on the occasion of a previous arrest he was tortured for 32 hours to make him agree to become a spy against the legation. Instead, the State Department said, he went back to the legation and told all.

The official Bulgarian news agency described the State Department's version today as "an attempt by the U. S. legation to cover up the espionage organizations sponsored by it." It asserted Acheson and the Voice of America—the U. S. radio propaganda organization—of falsifying "the established facts." The agency said Shipkov told the court during his trial he was "never tortured or hypnotized." The Sofia broadcast of the agency account was monitored here by teletype.

Physician and Wife Return to Home in Candia; No Interview

Candia, N. H., March 10 (AP)—Dr. Hermann N. Sander, acquitted of murder in the death of a cancer-riddled patient, still faces a hearing before the State Board of Registration in Medicine.

Dr. John S. Wheeler, state health officer and secretary of the board, said last night the board will decide what medical penalty, if any, will be imposed on the 41-year-old country doctor.

The board secretary said he will contact members of the group at once and that Dr. Sander will be allowed a reasonable time to "rest up" before he is called.

Dr. Sander and his wife returned to their big white colonial farmhouse this morning to settle down to the quiet family life they had enjoyed with their three daughters before the trial.

Things seemed to pick up just where they left off. Folks went their way about this sleepy little New England town just as they had not heard of the historic "mercy death" murder trial that involved their friendly neighbor.

Family Poses

The Sander family posed for news photographers—a real family type picture in front of the red-brick fireplace in their hill-top home. And the photographers themselves got into the act as the doctor came out of the house—hatless despite the intense cold.

To pose with them in a group picture taken on the steps of the house, Dr. Sander gave no interviews on the advice of Attorney Louis C. Wyman, son of the chief defense counsel at the trial.

Attorney General William L. Phinney, long-time friend of the doctor who directed the prosecution at the trial, was not at his office. But he sent word that he had nothing to say other than: "I did my duty. The jury of his (Dr. Sander's) peers did their duty."

Office Busy Place

A fairly busy spot was Dr. Sander's office on Elm street. Miss Helen Macielok, his secretary, said many patients delinquent in their bills had paid them since the trial started.

"Most of them left that is the only way they could help," she said. "And of course some donated to the fund being raised for the doctor."

She said many patients had called, too, in an attempt to learn when the doctor would be back in his office.

The House of Delegates of the New Hampshire Medical Society, which generally makes recommendations to the board, plans to meet Sunday afternoon in Concord at the state capitol—to discuss the case.

Dr. Wheeler pointed out, however, that it is his board that has authority to grant or revoke licenses to practice medicine.

Requested to Appear

He said the board had requested Dr. Sander to appear before (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Will Give Names In Spy Ring Cases, McCarthy Says

Declares Testimony Will Be Ready Monday If Flare-Ups Are Cut Out

Washington, March 10 (AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) worked today on "a number of important cases" which he contended will back up his charges that a Communist spy ring is operating in the State Department.

The Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee which is investigating his accusations, and much arguing, is in recess until Monday. McCarthy said he believes he can finish outlining his case in about five hours then "if I am not interrupted."

The committee voted late yesterday to refrain from further interruption in the hope McCarthy will wind up his testimony by midnight Monday and the case will get on with other phases of the inquiry.

Angry flare-ups at the inquiry have caused it to move at a snail's pace.

"I will present a number of important cases and will name names in each case," McCarthy told reporters. "In some instances I will make the names public. In others I probably will give the names to the committee in confidence."

The committee has invited Dorothy Kenyon to a public hearing Tuesday to make a formal reply to charges McCarthy has fired at her. The Wisconsin lawmaker said two days ago that Miss Kenyon, a former United Nations member of a United Nations commission, has been affiliated with at least 28 Communist front organizations.

Miss Kenyon, also a former New York city judge, already has called McCarthy a cowardly liar who was "taking refuge in his Congressional immunity to smear innocent people."

Plan Aims At Curbing Red Spread

Acheson Says Nation Must Do More Than in Past to Help Win Struggle

Two Lines Cited

Diplomacy, Economic Phases Are Stressed as Necessary

Washington, March 10 (AP)—A new cold war battlecry—"total diplomacy"—was raised for Americans today by Secretary of State Acheson. Its meaning: An all-out effort, short of shooting, to curb Russian expansion.

Declaring that the nation must do far more than it is now doing to halt Soviet plans for "world domination," Acheson said:

"We clearly are not focusing our resources in the winning of that struggle."

What's needed, he said, is a single-minded, "voluntary" campaign by all elements of the nation—Congress, the executive departments of the government, and the people. He mentioned particularly such institutions as business, agriculture, the press and the radio.

Acheson sketched this new outline of national support for United States foreign policy three weeks ago, in an informal White House talk before the Advertising Council, a private organization of leaders in the field of advertising.

Officials said the talk was kept secret, in the expectation that Acheson might use the same ideas in a public address in late February or early March. When this did not materialize it was decided to make a reconstructed version of his speech public.

Not Actual Transcript
The text given out last night was not an actual transcript but a version prepared from memory by Francis Russell, State Department director of public affairs. It was approved by Acheson.

In it, he declared that the United States must follow two closely related lines of foreign policy.

The first, he said, is "to meet wherever possible all threats of the Soviet Union" as has been done in Greece and in Turkey.

The second policy line, he said, "must be to create those economic, political, social and psychological conditions of strength and confidence in the democratic way of life."

In this connection, he noted the European recovery program and American aid in bringing independence to Indonesia. Then he added:

"One of the things that we must do is to enable other countries to buy with their own products the raw materials that they need to feed and clothe and employ their own people. This means that we must buy their goods and the services to a greater extent than at present."

Would Boost Imports

Some of Acheson's aides have estimated that American imports should be increased by about $3,000,000,000 a year if western Europe is to get along when the Marshall plan ends.

"It is matter of urgency as to what the level of our trade with the rest of the world should be," Acheson said. "But perhaps it should be somewhere not very far from present level."

"We must take that kind of action even though it requires adjustments here at home, and it will require some adjustments. Make no mistake about it. If we want to have strong allies in Europe we have got to work out some kind of pattern of the kind."

Davis Receives Permission

Paris, March 10 (AP)—Gorey Davis, who renounced his American citizenship to become a French citizen, today received permission to enter the United States as an immigrant. The 37-year-old former actor and author had been granted a visa by the U. S. consular representative in Paris, a spokesman announced. Davis is due to leave soon to visit his father, Band Leader Miles Davis, and the rest of his family. He remains in the U. S. because he came a citizen after renouncing his citizenship like any other immigrant.

Hydrogen Bomb Program Trouble Is With Scientists

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission and the Atomic Energy Commission, particularly foreigners, apparently is one of the big worries in the new hydrogen bomb program.

The problem may involve such issues as:

1. Setting up safeguards against another Fuchs spy case.
 2. Deciding whether the H-bomb effort shall be partial or full-scale.
 3. Draining scientists from universities and industry to an extent that might cripple the training of the physicists of the future.
 4. Making another deal with Britain.
 5. Amending the atomic energy law.
 6. Opposition of some scientists to going ahead with the super H-bomb now.
- Word is getting around that there is deep concern in the Senate-House Atomic Committee and the Atomic Energy Commission about conditions shaping up something like this:
- In developing the atomic bomb, the United States had to draw heavily on men who came from overseas, men like Budapest-born Dr. Edward Teller and Rome-born Dr. Enrico Fermi, both of the University of Chicago.
- While the theory of the hydrogen bomb has been known for years, getting this proposed super weapon into production would be likely to require many such scientists in key places.
- One authority is reported to have drawn up a list of the necessary talent which includes only two native Americans, Dr. Charles L. Critchfield of the University of Minnesota and Dr. J. A. Wheeler of Princeton.
- One of the foreign born on the list are on the faculty of America's deep concern in the Sen-

Newburgh Men Injured in Crash

Two Newburgh area men were injured about 5:25 p. m. Thursday when their automobiles collided on Route 9W one-quarter mile south of Milton.

Harold Tubbs of R.F.D. 1, Newburgh, and Harry Schwartz, 33, of 266 Grand street, Newburgh, were admitted to Vassar Hospital in Poughkeepsie where a condition report was not available this morning pending further examination and X-rays. Hospital authorities said both "appeared to be fairly comfortable."

State police at Highland said Tubbs suffered possible brain concussion, contusion and fracture of the upper jaw, and that Schwartz had lacerations of his right chest, possible fractured ribs, possible fractured right arm and other injuries.

Troopers who investigated the accident have not completed the investigation due to the condition of both drivers, but said that apparently Tubbs was driving north and Schwartz was driving south when one of the vehicles "cut back" across the highway, striking the other.

Church to Show Film On Changing World

"You Can Change the World," the first moving picture produced by The Christophers of New York city, will be shown Sunday night at 9 o'clock at the Presentation Church in Port Ewen.

The 30-minute film stars Eddie "Roche" Anderson, Jack Benny, Ann Blyth, Bing Crosby, Paul Douglas, Irene Dunne, William Holden, Bob Hope and Loretta Young. It was produced by William Perleberg and directed by Leo McCarey.

Stated purpose of the picture is "to alert people in all walks of life to the fact that the great fundamental truth of belief in God is slowly but surely disappearing not only from the American scene but over the world as well, and to spark as many as possible to do something about it."

Sullivan Group Would Purchase Railway Section

Monticello, N. Y., March 10 (AP)—The greater Sullivan County Chamber of Commerce will meet here tonight to discuss the possibility of buying part of the bankrupt 500-mile New York, Ontario and Western Railroad.

A foreclosure proceeding in Federal Court in New York city is scheduled for March 22 and county officials are anxious to take action before a judicial decision is reached.

Henry Tomes, Wurtsboro attorney and chairman of the Chamber's Railroad Committee, said purchase of one of two segments of the road under discussion. They are the 50-mile run from Middletown in Orange county to Roscoe and the 40-mile stretch between Monticello and Port Jervis. In each case arrangements could be made with the Erie Railroad to connect at Port Jervis or Middletown, Tomes said.

About 300 carloads of freight annually roll into Sullivan county bringing flour, coal, lumber and building materials from the mid-west.

Resort officials are also interested in maintaining railway service. Subway builder Samuel Rosoff recently inspected the road and said that he was interested in buying it.

Mushroom Men Walk Off Jobs

About 20 men walked off their jobs at noon today at the Knaust Brothers, Inc., mushroom plant on the Blinewater road near Rosendale.

Warren Knaust, general manager, termed the action as an "unauthorized walkout." The workers are not unionized. It was learned.

Knaust said he had requested protection from the sheriff's office fearing that the men might molest some of the company's trucks.

No reports of actual violence have been reported.

Cold Winds Come As Storm Followup

Cold winds left in the wake of Wednesday's freak thunderstorm hovered over the area yesterday as March remained its fickle self here, and according to the Associated Press, elsewhere in the nation.

The cold wave, much milder than that of last week, began immediately after the storm, mellowed a bit from 8 a. m. to noon yesterday when the mercury headed downward again for a low of 18 at 5:30 a. m. today.

It was 30 at noon yesterday but from then on hit the 20's through most of the day. Steady winds made the weather more severe than indicated on the thermometer.

It was generally cold through the eastern half of the nation and more cold air pushed into the country from western and central Canada, the A.P. said.

High winds continued over much of northeastern region but they were expected to diminish during the day. Gusts up to 45 miles an hour swept New York city and temperatures dropped far below freezing.

The cold air pushed south over the Carolinas and into northern Alabama, northern Georgia and over Tennessee and Mississippi. Parts of Florida got some of the cool air early today. Miami's low was 52.

The winds in New York city blew down signs, trees and wires. Five building corners loosened by the winds were removed by police.

A blizzard snarled traffic in upstate New York and was blamed for at least three deaths. Snow blanketed nearly all roads in St. Lawrence county on the Canadian border.

mittie for an opportunity "to attack Senator McCarthy's outrageous and maliciously false charges about me."

In granting her request, the committee also voted to give U. S. Ambassador-at-Large Phillip C. Jessup a chance to reply to McCarthy's contention that he has "grossly betrayed the trust of Communist causes." McCarthy also listed Jessup as a sponsor of a subversive organization.

Jessup, who is out of the country, did not ask for a hearing. But Senator Tydings (D-Md.), the subcommittee chairman, said he was "grossly disappointed" that all those against whom McCarthy brings charges publicly should get a chance to talk back in public.

Tydings said Jessup will be heard Tuesday or Wednesday if he has returned to Washington then. Otherwise he will testify whenever he is ready. If he wants to, at two days of public hearings thus far, McCarthy finished outlining only his case No. 1—against Miss Kenyon.

He said his next case, to be laid before the committee Monday, will disclose an "infinitely worse situation than he dealt with in the first case. He said the hearings have been marked by a series of sharp arguments between McCarthy and the three Democratic members of the committee. The two Republican members have come to his defense.

Yesterday, for example, McCarthy charged that the committee had become the tool of the State Department and was trying to trick him into disclosing the source of his information. He has indicated that some of it came from State Department workers.

Senator McMahon (D-Conn.) fired right back at McCarthy, saying he was making irresponsible statements and that he had better think twice about doing it again.

Sander, Freed . . .

It is January—just after his indictment—but the physician requested postponement until after the trial.

Wheeler's announcement came after court attaches had told newsmen that Dr. Sander was free to resume medical practice immediately. They said that restrictions, which prohibited him from practicing during trial, were lifted with acquittal.

The jury deliberated a little more than an hour before freeing Dr. Sander.

British Pastor Dies

Bedford, Eng., March 10 (AP)—The Rev. Robert Anderson Jardine, 72, who married the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, died today. He had been in failing health for some time and died at the home of his daughter. He came to Britain last year from the United States, where he had lived for the past 12 years. The Rev. Mr. Jardine traveled to France to marry the king, who had abdicated, to the woman for whom he gave up the throne.

can universities or employed by American industries. Like Teller and Fermi, some now are naturalized citizens.

But at least four Britishers are named. Getting British scientists opens up several questions.

Some authorities say it would require an agreement with Britain, and loosening atomic energy law controls over atomic information and material.

Some doubt that any scientists who are not American citizens could be employed on the H-bomb project unless the law is changed. And they believe the Fuchs case has increased the difficulty of getting Congress to make changes.

Dr. Klaus Fuchs is the German-born, naturalized British citizen who has confessed to atomic spying. He pleaded guilty in England to charges of stealing secrets and passing them to the Russians while working on the wartime atomic bomb project in this country.

Proposed Thruway

generally in the Castleton area and that which will carry traffic from the west side of the Hudson into Westchester county will be in the vicinity of Peekskill.

Plans for the latter structure were revealed last week, when it was announced that plans were definite for building the lower end of the artery route in Westchester.

The Castleton bridge plan was revealed this week. It would handle traffic and serve as a connecting link for the proposed Berkshire Thruway and the New York-Buffalo artery.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey is pressing for approval of the state thruway project at the session of the legislature, and the plan has the approval of Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York city.

No Settlement Announced
Meanwhile, the New York State Bridge Authority and the State Department of Public Works have announced no settlement of their recent dispute as to the location of the bridge in the Kingston area.

The authority wants the bridge leading directly from Kingston to Rhinecliff and the public works department favors a site north of the city. Preliminary steps have already been taken to advance plans for the bridge on the site nearest the city.

Plans for the thruway where it will cross Route 28 at Sawkill indicate that the interchange will be within about the first mile of the mountain route out of the city as was originally planned.

The super highway also will cross Route 208 and head in a general southerly direction through the eastern area of the county.

Surveys were made earlier this year in the vicinity of Sawkill and the point where the Sawkill road joins Route 28 to determine the route of the highway from Lake Katrine into the city. Engineers said the route from Saugerties to Lake Katrine had been established last year.

Several miles of the highway from Saugerties toward Catskill were completed last year and will be opened this year to relieve the bottleneck on Route 9W between Saugerties and Catskill.

This section of the thruway will be ready for traffic as soon as the interchange is completed at the point near Saugerties where it crosses Route 212.

Work is scheduled to begin this year on the road from the Saugerties to Kingston, and if the entire $450,000,000 project gets legislative approval at this session, contracts may be let before the end of the year for larger sections in this and other areas of the state.

Elks Give $250 to Fund For Kingston Boys Club

Members of Kingston Lodge No. 550, B.P.O.E., at a regular meeting Thursday night voted to donate $250 to the Kingston Boys Club fund drive.

The local Elks lodge made a donation of like amount to the Boys Club last year. The money will be presented as a contribution to the fund campaign, which is now in progress to raise funds for operational expenses.

Berinato Car Back

Shortly after John Berinato, 130 South Manor avenue, reported his car stolen at 10:45 p. m. yesterday, it was reported recovered on Hoffman street. Berinato's car was taken from the A. & E. parking lot on Prince street and it was recovered by Officers Kenneth Stratton and Clarence Stickles.

Was No Joke

Houston, March 9 (AP)—"This must be a joke," said a man who called the sheriff's office. "I've got a good boy working for me and he's got tickets for speeding. But it is signed Goodnight." It was no joke, he was assured. Deputy Sheriff Sid Yawn and Steve Goodnight, working together recently, had signed the ticket.

Strike Hits Homes

Paris, March 10 (AP)—The coffee wouldn't boil and the toast stayed white in many a Paris home this morning. On the second day of France's utility strike gas and electricity were so low cooking was impossible in some sections. Electricity, however, was maintained at almost normal level.

Hanley Calls . . .

because the county committee was "broke."

"If we're broke like Mr. Platt says, why're broke," Hanley said.

Appeals for Vote

Platt appealed for a heavy vote in the county this fall, telling his audience that in the last elections 1,400,000 enrolled voters failed to go to the polls. He said, "more than 45,000 were in Westchester county, and of these latter, more than 38,000 were enrolled Republicans."

Other speakers were Jane H. Todd, vice-chairman of the state Republican committee, and Benjamin F. Feinberg, chairman of the Public Service Commission.

Herbert C. Gerlach, Westchester county executive, was toastmaster. Those present included Bernard Katzen, president of the National Republican Club; Frank Kenne, chairman of the Queens County Republican Committee; and William F. Gwinn, both of Westchester.

Industry Needs Recognition, Says Commerce Group

Recognition of Kingston's present industries is one of the best ways of attracting new industries to this city, the industrial procurement committee of the Chamber of Commerce decided at a meeting Thursday night.

James H. Betts, chairman of the committee, reported the committee members agreed that appreciation must be shown to the city's present industries. "How can we hope to get new industries if prospects feel that they will not be appreciated after they locate here?" Betts said.

This showing of appreciation will be part of a long-range program which the procurement committee is planning. Committee members also agreed to stress the strategic location of Kingston, which they feel will be improved by completion of the Thruway and the proposed new Hudson river bridge at or near Kingston.

The committee also voted to work closely with Dale Swartz, miller district manager for the State Department of Commerce, in securing the names of prospective new industries.

Members of the industrial procurement committee present at Thursday night's meeting were Chairman Betts, Edwin L. Davey, Richard Kallish, Earl H. Newberry, Elmer Rynance and Moe Solomon. Other members on the committee who were unable to attend are John Haulenbeck, Lawrence Kelder and Christopher Morris.

Rent Control Is Still Up in the Air

Washington, March 10 (AP)—The question of extending rent controls another year was still up in the air today.

The Senate late yesterday voted Housing Expediter Tighe Woods $1,400,000 to administer rent ceilings until June 30, when the present rent law expires.

At the same time, they voted his $2,800,000 to use in preparation for closing up shop on that date.

Between now and then, they said, Congress can reach a decision on whether to continue controls. The two provisions were included in a $758,729,000 money bill to keep various government agencies in funds for the rest of the 1950 fiscal year ending June 30. That amount was $26,244,000 more than approved by the House—despite the efforts of Senate economy advocates to trim the total.

It was a dim day for economy-minded senators.

By a 57 to 14 vote, Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) lost a battle "to save $100,000,000 a year" by shortening the annual vacations and sick-leave now allowed most government workers.

Douglas needed a two-thirds majority of those voting to suspend Senate rules and whittle down what he called the "excessive privileges" of nearly 1,500,000 federal government workers.

Instead only two other Democrats and 14 Republicans lined up for this sort of economy. Some lawmakers said this was testimony to the power of government workers during an election year.

Senate action on the bill sent it back to the House. The Senate increases probably will be compromised later by a Senate-House conference committee.

School Bids Are Ready for Study

Bids for construction of the new Washington School on the former Sahler property in the eleventh ward have been inspected and the alternates figured. Bids will be in shape for action Monday night when a special meeting of the Board of Education will be held at 7 o'clock for the purpose of awarding contracts. It is expected work will get under way on the new school this spring.

When the school is completed No. 8 on Franklin street, one of the oldest school buildings in the city, will be abandoned for school purposes and the pupils transferred to the Washington School. A portion of the pupils of No. 7 school on Crown and Green streets will also be transferred to the new school.

Honor Communist

Moscow, March 10 (AP)—Former U. S. Assistant Attorney General John Rogge and American Artist Rockwell Kent placed a wreath today on the grave of John Reed, one of the founders of the American Communist Party, who was buried on Red Square at the Kremlin wall. Rogge and Kent are here as delegates of the Permanent Committee of the World Congress for the Defense of Peace.

The inscription on the wreath, laid at Reed's grave, read: "In loving memory from grateful Americans."

Financial and Commercial

New York, March 10 (AP)—A few stocks displayed considerable strength in a generally lower market today.

A heavy majority of issues showed losses of fractions to around a point. A hand-picked group of shares, on the other hand, advanced a top of around two points.

Most losses were scored immediately after the opening. The market quickly found a bottom and a good many shares inched up from their lows.

A fair amount of business was done, with turnover a bit above the past two sessions. Traders, however, were still inclined to operate cautiously while they waited for a clearer view of this year's business prospects.

Zenith Radio and Santa Fe stood out with gains of around two points each. General Electric improved fractionally, along with American Tobacco, Consolidated Natural Gas, and International Paper.

On the losing side was U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Sears Roebuck, Emerson Radio, Phelps Dodge Copper, American Cyanamid, du Pont, Westinghouse Electric, N. Y. Central, Pennsylvania R.R., Baltimore & Ohio, Nickel Plate, and U. S. Gypsum.

Corporate bonds gave a little ground in the bond market. U. S. government issues held steady in over-the-counter dealings.

Reds Hear Case Against Gubitchev Collapsed

London, March 10 (AP)—Russian readers are being told that Valentin A. Gubitchev is being sent home because of the "collapse of the accusations groundlessly brought against" the Soviet official.

They may be a little mystified, however, since the report sent to them by the New York correspondent for the Soviet News Agency, Tass, did not mention the espionage charges on which the former Soviet member of the United Nations staff was convicted yesterday.

This is the story the Tass reporter sent home.

A court investigation which continued intermittently since last autumn up to now proved the complete groundlessness of the charges against Gubitchev and was based on the testimony of pseudo witnesses—agents of the American intelligence service who were publicly exposed at the trial.

Nevertheless, the court sentenced Gubitchev to 15 years imprisonment. However, in connection with the collapse of the accusations groundlessly brought against Gubitchev, the court offered that he should leave for the U.S.S.R. within two weeks.

Gubitchev was convicted with Judith Coplon on espionage activities. Both were sentenced to 15 years in prison, but Gubitchev's sentence was suspended on condition he leave for Russia in two weeks "never to return."

The only mention Tass made of Miss Coplon was:

The American citizen Coplon was arraigned for trial together with Gubitchev and was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment.

Okay With Turkey

Tel Aviv, Israel, March 10 (AP)—Israel has gained full diplomatic recognition from Turkey, a predominantly Moslem country. It was officially announced last night. Turkey did not join the Arab blockade of nations warring against Israel in 1948.

The Onteora Central School Board of Education announced today a schedule of 23 public meetings to be held throughout the Central District, starting at the Ashokan School on Monday, March 13, and ending on Thursday, April 13.

These meetings are being held in each locality to answer questions concerning the new Onteora Central School construction program and present to the people of each community all available information pertaining to the educational program, design and type of construction, the cost of the building, the operation of the building, transportation of pupils, size of staff, estimated tax rates, and other information. Blueprints and photographs will be on display at the meetings. Members of the board of education and prominent local persons in each community will be requested to assist in the capacity of discussion leaders. The meetings will begin at 8 o'clock. One member of the board stated, "These meetings will provide vital information with reference to the entire school program and people in each community are urged to attend."

During the week of April 3 to 8, one large meeting will be held in each town for the purpose of giving those interested an opportunity to obtain information concerning questions that could not be answered at the smaller meetings.

Yellow posters will be displayed in prominent places in each village one week previous to the meeting. Discussion leaders will be named on the posters.

At some of these meetings, Paul H. Harbach, the architect who designed the building, will be present to assist the board in answering questions.

Time to Sleep

New York, March 10 (AP)—A phonograph record that is supposed to help induce sleep got a clean bill of health today from Federal Judge Leo F. Rayfield. He ruled that Ralph Slater, a hypnotist, had not violated the federal Pure Food and Drug Act in advertising claims made about his record, "Time to Sleep."

"Music and suggestion are frequently used to mitigate and relieve insomniac conditions," the judge wrote in his five-page opinion. Slater had been accused of making misleading statements in claiming the record would help cure sleeplessness in some cases. During Slater's trial, the courtroom was darkened, and the record played, but nobody was seen to doze.

Prelude to Oblivion

Eddyville, N. Y.

Editor The Freeman

The brain of man has developed over the course of millions of years to a point where nothing seems impossible. Man has studied the mysteries of the heavens, probed at the bottom of the oceans, solved the riddles of medicine and surgery, and his latest conquest is the conversion of energy to his use both for construction and destruction.

We have all heard of, or seen the terrific havoc caused by the Atom Bomb and now we are confronted with a still more powerful formula called the Hydrogen Bomb.

Must the world, because of international differences, be destroyed and must civilization start all over again from the single cell of life? Who knows but this process has been going through once or many times before. Each time man may not have known where to stop and in his hour of triumph, research wiped out all living things from the face of the earth.

The civilization that is the earth's today, is the result of too many centuries of effort to be wiped out by carelessness. Let the scientists take heed and be careful of the tremendous power they have in their hands. To harness this power to do good is one thing, but to build it for destruction could mean the end of everything.

Better by far that we scrap all data on the Atom and Hydrogen Bombs and rely on other methods to bring peace to this earth.

BABSON on BUSINESS

BABSON DISCUSSES THRIFT

Babson Park, Fla., March 10—My column this week will probably result only in a waste of good newsprint, but I will at least feel better by telling readers what I think.

Next to the importance of character and health, the habit of thrift is of primary importance for business success. Statistics will show that usually, men who save a little every week from their school days on, will some day have an independent business of their own; while those who spend all they get, are always obliged to work for someone else.

The wife's part in this is also very important. An old saying is that "a woman can waste more at the spittoon than a man can pour into the bung hole." I have graduated thousands of young men into business positions. Their success or failure has largely been determined by their spending habits, mostly determined by the wife.

Going Into Debt

I believe that an enemy of thrift is "Old Man Liquor." Not only do I believe that a large proportion of the money spent thereon is wasted, but that liquor is a cause of much crime and poverty. To my mind a most foolish part of the liquor problem is the way many young married people spend money on "social drinking."

Readers may argue it does "no harm," but I surely believe it usually is a waste of money with which the family could buy something more useful. Many such families are already in debt. This in my opinion is crazy financing for these families.

Enemy No. 2 is the installment habit. The exponents of this habit claim "it is forcing people to save." Yet, it is far better to develop self-control and save money first and then buy what you want and get the 10% cash discount. Thus, my advice to young people with ambition is to keep away both from social drinking and installment buying.

It is easy to become a slave to either, but it is hard later to get free from either. Salesmen want you to buy on the installment plan because it is so highly profitable to them. Although your indebtedness may be reduced by one-twelfth each month, you usually pay interest at the full rate for the full time. Thus, an innocent-looking 6% jumps to about an 11% per annum basis, on the average loan outstanding.

How Money Can Multiply

On the other hand, the money which you save will double every 12 years if properly invested. Ten dollars saved weekly at 6 per cent (which most good stocks now pay) can become $257.44 in 20 years. Once I asked Thomas A. Edison, "Who is the world's greatest inventor?" He replied at once, "The man who invented compound interest."

Compound interest is offered on the same terms to every U. S. family. This gives a return on $1,200 at 6 per cent of about 20 cents a day. But listen what compound interest means when we waste money. Unnecessary spending of $5 per week means throwing away the annual income on $10,000 of U. S. Government bonds at today's rate of 2 1/2 per cent. The interest which most readers, directly or indirectly, are paying could make them wealthy if saved and properly invested during their lifetimes.

Patriotism Demands Thrift

Religion, hard work, thrift and education made America the world's greatest nation. As we neglect any one of these, our country is in danger. Unfortunately, we are now neglecting thrift. Millions of families are going into debt for things they really don't need, while our government is going into debt, now in peacetime, at the fearful rate of $500,000 every hour of every day.

Debt and credit have their usefulness, but both are now being overstrained. President Truman gave a rosy outlook as to what our "income" would be in 1954, but he did not tell us how much each family then would owe. The fiscal policy of most families and politicians is now cockeyed. We all should wake up to the dangers of debt, both personal and national or Joe Stalin may get it.

P.S.—I have a friend J. T. Barton of Lake Worth, Fla., who has published a booklet showing How to Acquire the Saving Habit. He also originated a pocket piece which everyone should carry. He will send you one of his booklets free upon request. Please send him a three-cent stamp.

Dewey to Ask Continued Detention of Offenders

Albany, N. Y., March 10 (AP)—Governor Dewey will ask the Legislature next week to authorize "continued detention" of sex offenders convicted of crimes against women or children.

Dewey said last night bills would be submitted to carry out the recommendations of a special state committee, which worked from a two-year study of 102 sex offenders at Sing Sing Prison.

The six-member committee said, in a report released last night by Dewey, that present laws and sentences were "in many instances inadequate to protect women and children from attack or abuse by abnormal men."

The committee urged increased use of psychiatric treatment for sex offenders. The institutions for the criminally insane—Matteawan and Dannemora state hospitals—should be transferred from the Correction Department to the Mental Hygiene Department, the report said.

It warned that the sex crime problem could not be solved by "passage of any law or by any sudden panacea whatsoever."

Slickest Stickup Man Is Sought in $63,000 Robbery

New York, March 10 (AP)—While the Actor can't complain he's never been wanted.

He's been "wanted" for most of the last 33 years as one of the slickest stickup men in the business, and a prison escape artist to boot.

And he's wanted more than ever today as the No. 1 suspect in yesterday's butter-smooth, hour-and-a-half robbery of a branch bank here that netted a haul of $63,000 in untraceable small bills.

If police ever catch up with Willie, they'd like to chat about that $1,500,000 trunk's robbery in Boston last January—biggest cash holdup in U. S. history—and a not-so-small $582,000 stickup of a Havana, Cuba, bank in 1948.

Willie's real name is William Sutton. But at one time or another since 1917 he's answered to Julian Loring, George Holland, Richard Courtney and Richard Loring—fancy names from the English gentry.

On the whole, however, he's best known as Willie the Actor, having won the title for the disguises he used on various jobs. One of his favorites was a policeman's uniform. It inspired confidence.

When police passed around a mug shot of Willie yesterday, 11 of 17 employees of the Queens boulevard branch of the Manufacturers Trust Co., named him on the spot as the gang leader.

The leader had a thin dark moustache, while the picture had none. But police said an eyebrow pencil has been in Willie's bag of tricks for years.

Willie—if it was Willie—and two other gunmen hit the bank before opening yesterday morning and forced their way in with the first employee to arrive.

The others walked in one by one, were caught in the mouse-trap and made to sit down. Then as soon as the time locks opened in the vault doors, the gang cleaned out all the paper money on hand and disappeared, spurning $11,000 in silver. Police believe two others were involved in the getaway—although the trio might have escaped by subway.

Police paid grudging tribute to the flawless execution of the 90-minute robbery.

Police Commissioner William P. O'Brien had a hunch who it was—he even had the mug shot with him when he reached the holdup scene.

In addition to robbery, "Slick Willie"—as they call him in Philadelphia—has an impressive record as an escape artist.

He is one of the few men to make good an escape from Sing Sing—New York's tough prison on the Hudson.

Later, he almost escaped from the Eastern State Penitentiary in Pennsylvania—through a 60-foot tunnel he and several other convicts had been lighted electrically.

Two years after that, in 1947, he actually did escape from the Holmesburg prison in Philadelphia by scaling walls.

He has not been seen since, although police have been sure from time to time that they spotted his fine hand on a job.

Small and dapper, about 50 years old, Willie is no pushover. "He must be regarded as always ready to shoot to kill," O'Brien said.

deliberately discarded a trump on dummy's good ten of hearts. He then led a small diamond and won in dummy with the ace. The king of hearts was played and the six of diamonds discarded by declarer. Then the good queen of diamonds was led from dummy. West refused to trump, discarding the six of clubs, and declarer discarded the nine of clubs.

The ace of clubs was cashed, and now declarer led the jack of hearts from dummy. West was forced to trump with the eight of spades, declarer overtrumped with the queen, and made the last trick with the ace, scoring five-odd.

If West had trumped in on the diamond, East would have been squeezed.

Air Reserve Has Banquet Slated; To Meet March 14

Appointment has been announced of a chairman for the first annual banquet of the 9267th Volunteer Training Squadron, United States Air Force Reserve, by Major Theodore Lee, commanding officer, who also made public an important meeting with discussion of warfare topics for Tuesday, March 14 at 7:30 p. m. in the American Legion Memorial Building, West O'Reilly street.

Lt. William Reardon, principal of Public School No. 1, a navigator during World War 2, is chairman of the banquet, a date for which will be set by him and his committee: Lt. George Kenny, program chairman; Lt. Joseph Benjamin, tickets and reservations; Sgt. Frank Weighall and Capt. Donald C. Weeks, public relations.

A letter giving full instructions on reservations will be sent to every member of the squadron, which was organized a year ago. A progress report will be given at the meeting on the 14th.

Important topics to be discussed at the session in the Legion building are:

Organization and Missions of the Major Commands—Lt. David Cole.

"The Strategic Importance of Canada"—Lt. Ned Conklin.

"Bacteriological Warfare"—Dr. John A. Comstock.

Dealing with missions of major commands, Lt. Cole will point out several of the problems which have arisen since the war and how the commands have been organized to meet them.

Dr. Comstock, local dentist, who served with the Army Dental Corps, will continue his pertinent observation on bacteria warfare that are of interest to squadron members and cite decisions that will have to be made by military and civilian leaders regarding utilization of this type of warfare in any future conflict.

Tools

what they are

Tools take many forms

- A farmer tills the land—the land, the plow and the tractor that cultivates the land, the sheds and barns, the seed and fertilizer—all are tools to help him raise a crop.
- A machinist goes to work—the factory building, the land under it, the machines in it, the raw materials he uses—all are tools to help him produce goods.
- The grocer in his store—his stock of canned and packaged goods, the telephone, the cash register, his paper bags and string, his delivery truck—all are tools to help him serve his customers.

Obviously, without tools a man can't do much useful work. He might with his own two hands manage to get enough to eat and to keep some sort of roof over his head. But, tools multiply his hands. Obviously, too, a man can't be expected to provide by himself all the tools he uses. He must rely upon someone else to supply most of them.

Consider the farmer above. From the crop he raises he buys food and lodging, clothes himself and family, provides for other expenses. He probably "saves" a little too and with his "savings" does one of a number of things:

- (1) puts his extra money into a savings bank
- (2) pays premiums to life insurance companies
- (3) invests in securities.

When he does any one of these, he is buying tools to help other men earn a living . . . because savings banks and insurance companies also invest in corporation securities. That's the way corporations come into being—a pool of the small savings of the farmer, the doctor, the merchant, the butcher, the baker,—to finance some venture for which there is a market.

Because his "savings" are used to provide more tools to aid more men, the farmer is certainly entitled to pay for the use of his money. Interest and dividends are the award he gets. Surely he is entitled to a fair return.

On the opening lead of the eight of diamonds, declarer played the jack from dummy and West's king held the trick. West returned a small diamond, hoping that his partner could ruff, but dummy's ten won the trick. Declarer returned the six of spades from dummy and finessed the ten-spot, which held.

A small club was led and dummy's jack finessed. When it held the four of spades was played from dummy, declarer finessed the jack and East's nine dropped, warning declarer that the two remaining trumps were in the West hand.

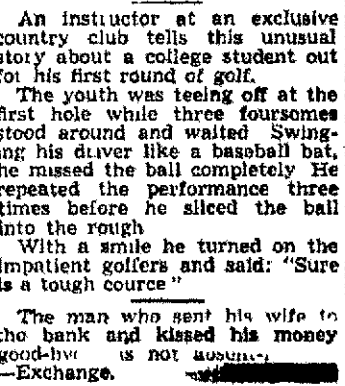

North now led his heart and East went in with the ace. If East returned a club, it would be into declarer's queen. He elected to return a small heart. The ten was played from dummy, and although this was a winning card, declarer realized that he must shorten his hand in trump; so he

Here are two stories, both true. The first is as mean as a thumb in the eye; the second, as heartening as a sunrise.

The mean one is about a Philadelphia industrialist who, on one of his frequent business trips to New York, made the acquaintance of a young lady whose good looks were only surpassed by her amiability. Despite the fact that he was married, the tycoon began to see a lot of the girl, and it wasn't long before he had set her up in a Madison avenue apartment and was forking over $300 a week to cover expenses.

After a couple of cozy and clandestine years, the girl said to him one night, "If something ever happens to you, Daddy, I'll be left without a penny. Don't you think you ought to do something about securing my future?"

"You're absolutely right," said the industrialist. "Give me a few days to work it out."

The next time he called on the girl he handed her half a million dollars worth of three per cent railroad bonds.

"These will yield you an income of fifteen thousand a year," he said. "Every three months as the coupons come due, clip them and I'll cash them in for you, and you can use the money for expenses. You'll notice I haven't put your name on the bonds. Well, that's because the transfer of so large a sum would call to the attention of the board of directors and cause a lot of talk. However, if anything happens to me, you can write your name in and sell the whole lot at any brokerage house."

The girl thanked him, and the pair continued seeing each other until the tycoon keeled over in his Philadelphia office a couple of years later with an attack of coronary thrombosis. When his lady friend read the obituary in the papers, she wrote her name on the bonds and took them to a brokerage house.

The broker examined the certificate. "You're a little late, Miss," he said. "This railroad went out of existence almost thirty years ago!"

The girl picked up the worthless paper and walked out. "The dirty double-crosser," she muttered. "All he gave me was the same three hundred a week."

And now let me take the thumb out of your eye and show you the sunrise.

Some years ago, an Iowa garage man went bankrupt and decided to make a fresh start in another state. He scraped together a little cash, loaded his wife and kids into a beat-up Chevrolet and headed for California. Unfortunately, the jalopy broke down outside of Tucson and the cost of getting it fixed cleaned him out.

To get a little eating money, he set out to canvas the garages in town for a job but quickly found the supply of local labor was greater than the demand—Tucson, because of its climate, was filled with tuberculosis victims, a good many of whom were mechanics.

At the last garage on his list, he repeated his hard-luck story and got the standard turn-down, but as he started to walk out he was stopped by one of the mechanics.

"If you need a job as bad as you say," he said, "you can have mine. I'm pretty sure I can fix it with the boss."

"Don't you need the job yourself?" said the man from Iowa. "I've saved enough to last me for six months," said the mechanic, "and the doctor who's treating me for TB says that's all I figure to live."

"DER FUHRER"—Germany's Adolf Hitler, father of World War II—had hardly begun to make his name one of the most infamous in history when this picture was made in 1925. The "little corporal" was just an ex-jailbird, having served 13 months in prison at Landsberg for his part in the abortive Nazi beer garden "putsch" in Munich—an incident which the Nazis later glorified in annual holiday observances. Nazism sprang alive in Munich in 1923, and became the ruling power in Germany 10 years later. In 1935, the powerful Nazi army marched into the Rhineland, marking the start of a program of ruthless aggression such as the world had never seen before. Many millions were to die wretchedly, including Herr Hitler, before the scourge of fascism was destroyed.

Singer's Features School Collection Of Gasoline Planes

Various types of gasoline model airplanes collected under the auspices of William Limbacher's general shop course at the Kingston Vocational School are on display this week in the show window of Bernie Singer's tire and accessory store at 73 North Front street.

Racing planes, team racing planes, stunt planes, planes made solely for sport flying and free flight planes are included in the exhibit. The stunt planes are capable of performing all the maneuvers practiced by real airplanes.

The exhibit, according to Limbacher, is designed to encourage organized model flying in Kingston. At the present time there is no formal model airplane club in the city devoted to construction and flying of the gasoline models, but a nucleus of devotees hopes to establish such a club by next year.

Limbacher and Singer have stated they believe in the educational possibilities of model building. They place emphasis on the sport as a father and son activity and find that frequently the older members become as rabid as the younger on the subject. Last year as many as six sets of fathers and sons were "flying" at one time.

Models on display were contributed by Nick Radenberg, John Brodhead, Jerry McGreevy, Norton Lawrence, Ray Bishop, Henry Cherick, Ralph Speer, Amos McGreevy and James Kaman.

Strike Vote Postponed

Syracuse, N. Y., March 10 (AP)—A scheduled strike vote among General Electric employees here has been postponed indefinitely. A "right-wing" faction of Local 320, United Electrical Workers, had scheduled the vote for last night, because the company withdrew recognition of union officials in grievance matters. Harold Martin, right-wing business agent, said a snowstorm prevented the meeting. Local President Jack Brady said the executive committee would "further consider" a new date.

Boston University's A Cappella Choir Will Give Concert in Kingston March 17

The Boston University Choral Art Society—40 voices which have been acclaimed as "the outstanding university choral group in the country"—will give a concert in Kingston, in the St. James Methodist Church, Friday, March 17. There will be no charge.

A massed chorus of choir members from churches in the Kingston area—totaling an estimated 150 to 200 voices—will take part in a staggered processional during the concert and there will be a 20-minute session of hymn singing, in which the audience will participate.

The Boston choral group, which has sung with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, will appear in Kingston as the second stop of its annual spring tour, which will take it to Worcester, Buffalo, Detroit, Cleveland and other cities. Its radio broadcasts have reached 200,000 people.

Sponsor of the Kingston concert is the Sanctuary Choir of the St. James Church, and C. Franklin Pierce, minister of music, who will present the choral group as a public service. Although no admission will be charged, a collection will be taken to help defray expenses. It will be the third appearance of the society in Kingston—the

Among the Easter Fashions for Smart Women Shown Last Night

with the double collar and tiny check which spell 1950. Mrs. Thelma Sassin displays a formal hair styling by J. Martin, plus a pin, ring and earrings of gold, diamonds and rubies; Laura De Cicco shows a cocktail chintz featuring the new shepherd collar on a little jacket which is removable, leaving shoulders bare; Mrs. Vincent Connelly, showing styles for the more mature woman, displays a two-toned one-piece crepe dress with redingote effect in sand and brown, and a matching hat. (Freeman Photos)

500 Women View New Spring Fashions

In Dresses, Hats, Furs, Jewels, Shoes, Hair

Spring came to Kingston last night, and even a sneak preview of summer. The temperature shivered down somewhere in the teens, but Spring definitely arrived.

It was in the Governor Clinton Hotel—where more than 500 women, themselves very fashionably (albeit warmly) dressed, had braved wind and weather to view spring fashions at the 14th annual fashion show sponsored by the Women's Club of the Y.W.C.A.

Featuring the crisp, attractive "wearable" look, the fashion show marked the none-too-soon demise of the "new look."

There is no fashion "dictatorship" this spring (as in the "new look" days) but there are many fashion suggestions—straighter, shorter skirts, the charming "touch of white" accent on separates, suits that are really two-tone (yellow and blue, for instance), shepherd collars (big affairs that stand up at the back of the neck), plenty of navy and green drop shoulders, double collars on suits and raincoats which aren't raincoats but bright waterproofed casuals of many materials.

None of these trends is required wearing for the smart woman, however, fashion is fancy free this spring.

It was a glittering show. The audience buzzed when commentator Helen Davenport described the diamonds and sapphires and rubies and emeralds which the models wore to complement the dressier clothes. The models passed through the audience to afford closer examination of the fabulous jewelry, which was safeguarded by a large and imposing plain-clothesman in the lobby.

The model who closed the show, Mrs. Sylvia Leventhal displayed a stunning silver-blue mink cape-stole, plus a diamond and platinum necklace ($35,000) a diamond and platinum bracelet ($28,000) a diamond and platinum ring ($5,000) and diamond and platinum earrings ($6,000)—a total of 185 carats. The audience groaned.

The jewelry was brought from New York by Safford and Scudder, and the lovely furs were by Leventhal.

Hats (by the Teresa Rose shop) were along traditional Spring lines—plenty of saloon many "little" bonnets trimmed with flowers or fruit, and some dramatic big-brims in sweeping lines of shiny straw. Shoes (by Rowe's) were classic, with some accent on bright colors to contrast with neutral clothing, and a new shade: cocoa.

Hairstyles, by J. Martin, still were short and young and simply curled... although he featured one elaborate piled-on-top hairdo for evening wear, and one "mad" style which he called "Spur of the Moment"—a temporarily two-toned fashion with white curls caught into a back-knot and a white streak through the model's brown hair.

Make-up by Geraldine of Charles of the Ritz was not extreme. It seemed to aim at a natural look, with some extra touches at the eyes.

The sneak preview of summer came when Laura De Cicco showed a "cocktail chintz" of cotton, a fresh young style in white with a big green and plum-colored figure, featuring a removable jacket with the dramatic "shep-

Smiley Is Soloist With the Dutchess County Philharmonic

Alice Smiley, accomplished Lake Mohonk concert violinist, will appear with the Dutchess County Philharmonic in Poughkeepsie Wednesday evening, March 15, playing the Beethoven Violin Concerto, under the baton of Ole Windingstad.

Other works on the program are the familiar Schubert "Unfinished" Symphony, and the seldom-played Sinding Symphony in D Minor.

The Philharmonic draws its musicians (and audiences) from the entire Hudson valley, including Kingston.

Mrs. Smiley has appeared in New York's Town Hall, and has given recitals in Boston, Los Angeles and other cities. Her pure, lyric playing has been acclaimed by the critics.

5-Year-Old Needs Clothing, Club Says

The plight of a five-year-old girl who has only panties and a summer dress to wear in kindergarten was described yesterday by School 5 Mothers Club, whose members urged Kingstonians to send suitable warm clothing and underwear to aid the child.

Clothing may be sent directly to the school, the club said. At the meeting, it was announced that children and mothers of the school had donated $15.19 for the Heart Drive. Mrs. Donald Sangallie, program chairman, showed a movie, "It's No Picnic," concerning fire prevention, supplied by the Audio-Visual Aid Society. Mrs. Derwood Freer presided.

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post

(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

GOOD TASTE

It is generally a man who asks this question: "Please tell us who ends a telephone conversation? Is there any rule of politeness?" She should—at times he has to!

Chopped Hands

Dear Mrs. Post: Could hand lotion be considered an insult as a present? I have a relative who has very chapped hands and I'm going to spend the week-end with her and thought some good hand cream might be a nice week-end gift to take her. But I want no hurt feelings as a result.

Answer: If she ever has talked about how easily her hands chap, then taking something that you know would help would surely show special thought. Otherwise, it would seem better to choose something else.

Hatless Women

Dear Mrs. Post: At a wedding reception I found myself in the midst of a completely hatless group. Every woman present had taken her hat off. I didn't expect to take mine off, never having seen this done before. My hair was not at its best. Was I wrong in not following suit of the other ladies?

Dear Mrs. Post:

I think you were quite right not to do as the others did under the circumstances you describe.

Dear Mrs. Post:

How does a doorman show respect in the matter of tipping his hat? He wears a uniform which includes a cap. If a lady speaks to him he'd normally tip his hat, but does he in uniform?

Dear Mrs. Post:

A doorman always wears a hat, and tips it by bringing his first two fingers to the brim and then dropping them, whenever a lady—or gentleman—addresses him.

Dear Mrs. Post:

Is it entirely wrong to serve midnight refreshments after cards at the dining table? Everyone seems more comfortable at the table. Would I have to set the table for a real meal or just with necessities?

Dear Mrs. Post:

Dining table by all means—set only with necessities.

Volunteer Workers Appeal for Cloth To Aid Cancer Home

Pads of all varieties, totaling 6,080, and 233 bed jackets have just been shipped from Kingston to the Rosary Hill Home for incurable cancer patients in Hawthorne. It was announced today as an appeal was sent out for clean white material.

The pads and jackets were made by a group of volunteer workers who meet every Wednesday from 10 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. at the municipal auditorium to assist the work of the home—where patients are received without regard to race, creed or color.

Appealing for donations of material, Mrs. Margaret Pendill, spokeswoman for the volunteer workers, said that sheets, pillow cases, slips, curtains of any color, dresses, white stockings could be used, as well as men's white handkerchiefs and men's white and colored shirts.

The bed jackets, comfortable and lightweight, are made from men's shirts, she explained.

Mrs. Pendill said the volunteer workers never asked for money to help support the home, but that they do seek donations of material.

She said the home now has about 100 patients, some of them children. Founded by Rose Hawthorne, daughter of Nathaniel Hawthorne, the home is situated in the midst of a park. The patients are all incurable cancer patients.

The volunteer workers at the Municipal Auditorium are always glad to receive visitors, Mrs. Pendill said, and some home-made articles are on sale. Proceeds from the sale go to buy the cotton used in making pads, she said.

For further information, contact Mrs. Vincent A. Gorman, 184 Albany avenue, phone 26, or Mrs. Pendill, 102 Ahrum street, phone 1820.

Do You Remember

by SOPHIE MILLER

Wonders never cease, postal card collectors of local scenes would be delighted with an assortment of local scenes. I am not quite sure if it's a gas light on the corner but several tall poles which aren't there now decorate the street.

Tapken House, corner North Front and Wall, which was the executive chamber of Governor Clinton, must have been taken from an old print or drawing. Those two were published by the Kingston Souvenir Co. Also the Old Hurley House with mention that "on tree in backyard of this house the British spy Taylor was hung in 1777." Old Kingston Academy corner John and Crown, also another old landmark of the Revolutionary times.

On another card, "made in Germany," the Hugh C. Leighton Co. Manufacturers, Portland, Me. U.S.A. shows the Old Doan Wall Tower on North Front street. Another card which seems to have been printed in Europe as it has a lot of foreign printing on the back, is of our "Stockade," as planned by Governor Peter Stuyvesant, and built by the Dutch settlers of Kingston in 1658 as a protection against the Indians. It also says that the stockade was built by the Dutch settlers of Kingston in 1658 as a protection against the Indians. It also says that the stockade was built by the Dutch settlers of Kingston in 1658 as a protection against the Indians.

Another card which says, "copy-right by Herman Gould Smith, Kingston, N. Y. 1902," shows Wall street in 1830. "The scene of thrilling historic events attending the birth of New York State." The cupola on the right marks the location of the Court House where the first Constitution was adopted and proclaimed. Here Governor Clinton was inaugurated and the joyous part of the ancient bell that hung in the belfry of the Old Dutch Church seen on the left, and the firing of a feu de joie to the Militia, July 30th, 1777. In the Court House the first Grand Jury was charged by Chief Justice John Jay, September 9th, 1777. These cards would be excellent for the school children who are taking up local history. Mr. Miles told me by phone that he has collected such cards since he was a boy and has hundreds of them, but of course not all on local history.

Received a very nice note from Mrs. Charles H. Crowell, of 88 Bradford street, Pittsfield, Mass. She is the daughter of Dr. Walter Alexander Van Rensselaer, who saved Old Pete's life, after he had been hit by lightning on that famous circus day in which several other were killed. She said she was interested to hear about old Pete's children and grandchildren and that they remembered hearing about incident. Dr. Van Rensselaer's office was at 20 Wall street. "Mrs. Van Hovenberg and Van Rensselaer," (plenty Dutch) she adds.

According to Clearwater's book, Dr. Henry Van Hovenberg born May 2, 1850 in Westfield, N. Y. went to Kingston Academy. In 1872 graduated from Bellevue Medical College, New York City. Became member of surgical staff of City of Kingston Hospital, attending physician at Industrial Home. I think he was also school doctor in my time.

Honest Plans, He Says
London, March 10 (AP)—Soviet Deputy Premier Georgi M. Malenkov said in a pre-election speech last night that Russia is ready to take an active part in "honest plans" to prevent a new war.

Malenkov, whose speech was broadcast by radio Moscow monitored here, accused "American aggressors" of blocking a Russian-proposed plan last year for a pact to strengthen the peace among the Big Five—United States, Russia, Britain, France and China. A member of the all-powerful Politburo of the Russian Communist party, Malenkov was making a campaign speech on behalf of his candidacy for the Supreme Soviet (Parliament) in the coming national elections Sunday.

Elected Power Director
Ernest R. Acker, president and general manager of the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation, has been elected to the board of directors of the Connecticut Power Company of Hartford, Conn. The transmission systems of Connecticut Power and Central Hudson have long been interconnected at the New York-Connecticut states lines for emergency interchange of power. Mr. Acker has the distinction of having served as president of both the Edison Electric Institute and the American Gas Association, the two national organizations of electric and gas utility companies.

Will Protest on Saar
Bonn, Germany, March 10 (AP)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer told a special Parliament session today he will protest to the western Allies against the recent Franco-Saar agreement. The agreement gave the German-speaking, 700-square-mile Saar almost complete self-government in return for assigning its border area coal wealth to France for 50 years. Adenauer's government yesterday published a White Paper proposing to western allied authorities that the Saar be placed under international control similar to that which rules the industrial Ruhr. The accord between the Saar government and France aroused a storm of protest in West Germany.

Legion Ladies to Hear About Rabid Foxes
At the regular monthly meeting next Thursday evening, March 16, the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Town of Marlborough Post of the American Legion Auxiliary will have as their speaker, Dr. Hoppenstedt, county veterinarian, who will talk on the rabid fox menace. This talk will be open to the public and it is hoped that many will attend.

At a special meeting of the auxiliary on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Brown of Stone Ridge, it was voted to offer as a prize a rifle of a well-known hunter of Marlborough to shoot a rabid fox. It was felt necessary to supplement the excellent work being done in the community by the fox trappers due to the fact that so many foxes are coming into the villages, killing pets, and otherwise alarming the inhabitants.

Many local business men and private citizens have expressed the desire to continue giving prizes for rabid foxes killed following the lead of the auxiliary. Mrs. Hoffman, president of the auxiliary, asks that each member bring Easter cards to the meeting. These will be sent to Castle Point Veterans' Hospital for the patients to send to their relatives and friends. Place of this meeting will be announced later.

As Pegler Sees It

Republican President would be overpowered by the enormity of the Russian menace and swept out of office or forced to compromise.

Roosevelt's war was good practice in totalitarianism. Lists of unessential occupations were typed up, warning soda-jerks and ribbon-clerks but not Communist cronies, movie actors and broadcasters, to hie them to the union offices and pay from $50 to $500, plus further weekly tribute, as the price of exemption from the draft. Union officials were deemed essential and so were exempt on their own representation as in the flagrant case of Joe Curran, of the Maritime Union.

Under "aggregate war powers" which McMahon yearningly contemplates again for Truman, any newspaper or press association, any radio station, any great or little business could be seized by the army, as Montgomery Ward was, on the ground that any Communist members of the union had been kicked out for sabotage by a foreman with a son dead on Guadalcanal. The entire "plant" of the United States, from Joe's Lunch to Big Steel, came within the category of "facilities," and the "aggregate war powers" conferred for the President by his appointees in the Department of Justice were sufficient for the seizure and "operation" of these private properties on the most transparent pretense of a "labor dispute."

At one point, the Roosevelt government went through motions preliminary to the seizure of a big press association because the management would not kneel to the Newspaper Guild of which the Empress Eleanor was a member. In the nick of time, they thought the better of it. They would have had to move their own executive staff and they had not yet quits the effort to plant Joe Lash, Lowell Mellett and Dave Katz, alias Karp, in the executive offices. Now that might.

The portents are increasing. Truman, Acheson, Bullitt and Byrnes have come over to our side as against the pro-Russian policy of the Roosevelt reign which is the sole reason why the United States of America, for the first time in their history, are threatened with material destruction, if not obliteration, and military and political conquest.

Sam Rosenberg opines that if Roosevelt had lived he would have talked things out with Stalin. Others of lesser guilt, a gutless, unprincipled horde, are showing fear now that the Soviet empire which they helped much or little, one way or another, but knowingly and guiltily, to create, is showing its teeth and threatening the United States with death in war. Furry men, blowing themselves up with a pretense of immortal wisdom, ridicule the fears of realists who never underestimated Moscow's perfidy nor overestimated her honor, but Cardinal Spellman utters a solemn warning to Americans to be always prepared for death. This was not a general, perfunctory iteration of a purely religious motto, but a direct reply to the question whether he thought the threat of war was greater than it was four months ago.

McMahon's words are prophetic. To prepare to be on guard against Roosevelt's protegee, the Soviet empire, it would be and soon undoubtedly will be necessary to relinquish again the liberties which Roosevelt suspended and to spend so much on the program that the Republican system of government will fail. Meanwhile, nevertheless, Roosevelt's widow, with cosmic offrontery, cackles of his great love of hu-

Kingston High and Newburgh Ready for Intersectional Openers

Albany High Faces Kiasmen Tonight; NFA Opens Saturday

Kias Predicts Record Crowds for Two Games

Kingston High and Newburgh Free Academy, featuring two of the greatest scorers in DUSO League basketball history—Ronnie Scheffel and Dick Tyler—are primed for the invasion of Albany High and Troy High, in opening games of the intersectional tournament tonight and Saturday at the municipal auditorium.

Kingston meets Albany High, a 12-5 power in Section 2, at the municipal auditorium at 8:30 tonight.

N.F.A. and Troy High are scheduled in the Saturday feature at the same time.

Record Crowd Expected
Coach G. Warren Kias, athletic director at K.H.S., this morning predicted a record attendance for the Kingston-Albany game. Kias said the advance sale of reserved seats has exceeded demands for the Newburgh contest.

Kingston's task is admittedly tougher than that facing the powerful Goldbacks, who won 10 out of 20 games this season and whipped Kingston three times. Albany is regarded as a dangerous club, while Troy was only so-so in Section 2 competition.

Ronnie Scheffel, having set a new all-time K.H.S. scoring record of 391 points, leads the Maroon cast into action. If they defeat Albany, the Kiasmen travel to Saratoga next week-end to battle mighty Mont Pleasant.

Tyler Set DUSO Mark

Newburgh presents the brilliant Dick Tyler, whose 293 points represent a new all-time DUSO scoring record. Tyler appeared in one more game than Scheffel in conference play. Scheffel's DUSO total was 262 points.

Topnotch preliminaries are carded at 7:30 tonight and Saturday. Cornwall and New Paltz, a couple of Class C powers are scheduled tonight.

Highland Falls meets Pine Bush in the Saturday prelude to Newburgh-Troy. Pine Bush knocked off Middletown High, a Class A DUSO club, 58-56, Wednesday night.

New Paltz vs. Alumni

New Paltz State Teachers Alumni athletes of the past 13 years will meet the 1949-50 college basketball varsity in the resumption of the Alumni-College game Saturday night, marking resumption of the competition since it was discontinued in 1943.

K.B.A. Committees Meet on Sunday

The Nominating and Rules committees of the Kingston Bowling Association will meet on Sunday, March 12, at 1 p. m. at the Y.M.C.A. to draft new by-laws and a slate of officers for the 1950-51 season. Executive members requested to attend are: "Hod" Spaulding, Bill Kuehn, Tony LaRocca, John MacLellan, Pete Kerasman and Ray Cord. The rules committee will meet at 2 p. m.

Palmer and Harper Share Miami Lead

Miami Beach, Fla., March 10 (AP)—A pair of soft-spoken southerners, both veterans of many campaigns on the links, shared the lead today as the Miami Beach $10,000 Invitational Golf tournament went into the second round.

Chunky Johnny Palmer, professional of Badin, N. C., who earlier this week won the La Gorce Country Club pro-amateur, and Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., each carded three under par 69's yesterday as the first major Miami Beach tournament in 20 years got under way.

Palmer, 10th ranking money winner thus far this year, carded a 34 on the front side of the Bayshore golf course for the best nine hole score of the day. But coming back his putter turned sour, a 25-mile an hour wind played havoc with the long shots and he was one over par.

Harper, fourth ranking Ryder Cup team candidate with 87 2/3 points and eighth ranking money winner with $2,700 so far this year, was even par 36 on the front nine and came back in three under par 33.

Training Camp News in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Bradenton, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Rookie pitcher George Uhle has a sore arm and will not travel with Boston's Braves to Miami for Saturday's opening exhibition game against the Brooklyn Dodgers. General Manager John Quinn said outfielder Luis Olmo probably will report to the Tribe at Miami. Purchased from Brooklyn after the last season, Olmo has been a successful playing manager in winter ball.

Sarasota, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Although shortstop Vern Stephens has ended his salary argument with Boston's Red Sox and is due here Saturday he is not expected to play in the first exhibition game.

Utility infielder Merl Combs, a classy glove man but not too strong with the bat, probably will play short against the Cincinnati Reds Saturday. Stephens agreed to terms yesterday and will fly here. As usual salary terms were not disclosed and guesses have ranged as high as $40,000.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 10 (AP)—The New York Yankee management has sent ultimatums to the two remaining holdouts—pitcher Tommy Byrne and infielder Bobby Brown.

The gentlemen who handle the cash for the world champions sent the recalcitrants word that they have gone the limit in their offers. The next move, they indicated, are up to the holdouts.

Byrne won 15 games last year. Brown played 104 games at third and batted .283.

Phoenix, Ariz., March 10 (AP)—The next item needed in the New York Giants' bid for a championship formula, according to Manager Leo Durocher, is a dependable left-handed pinch hitter.

Durocher said he would comb the minors if necessary to land the man he wants.

Leo said Don Muller and Joe Lafata would fill the bill but both are ticketed for regular duty.

Vero Beach, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Gene Hermanski, the Brooklyn Dodgers' injury-plagued outfielder, may be out two weeks with his latest trouble.

Big Gene, benched a lot last year with a succession of injuries, suffered a severe ankle sprain when he scrambled to first base in an intra-squad game yesterday. An X-ray showed there was no fracture.

Coach Ed Diddle is back with a better team than last year's quarter-finalists. That club bowed to Bradley. The Hilltoppers, Bradley and Kentucky rate as the top three favorites in the 12-team field.

Bradley and Western both have more experience than Kentucky's sophomore club. Where Western may rate a slight edge is in height. Diddle can send out five men averaging six-foot or five-topped by six-foot Bob Lavoy.

Western (24-5) rates a heavy favorite over Niagara (20-6) in Saturday afternoon's opener. The Hilltoppers also have to get by St. John's (22-4), fourth seeded, to reach the semi-finals and may be out two weeks with his latest trouble.

Bradley (27-3), first-seeded, finished first in the final Associated Press poll of the country's top teams.

Unseeded San Francisco (19-6), defending champion, plays C.C.N.Y. (17-5) in the other afternoon contest. When Saturday night LaSalle (20-3) meets Arizona (25-4) and Long Island (20-4) takes on Syracuse (17-8).

Larry Doby to Aim For More Base Hits

(By The Associated Press)

Tucson, Ariz., March 10 (AP)—Outfielder Larry Doby says he's through trying to kill the ball but he has walloped the longest homer at Randolph Park during these first nine days of the Cleveland Indians' spring training.

Doby sent one of Bob Lemon's offerings riding more than 400 feet over the centerfield fence in an intrasquad game yesterday.

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 10 (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics have crossed training camp fingers on one of their big hopes of the year—the return of outfielder Barney McCosky to the lineup.

Barney injured his back in the first day of 1949 training, and played no ball last year. He has a lifetime batting average of .320.

Extensive surgery in Detroit three months ago may have corrected the back trouble. Barney is running and exercising daily, and expects within a month to make the big try—to swing a bat.

If the pain doesn't come back then, he says, he's in.

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Outfielder Stan Musial hopes to resume practice with the St. Louis Cardinals today.

He says his chest cold has broken up and he will be in uniform when the squad opens its exhibition season Saturday against the New York Yankees.

Musial took heat treatments yesterday.

Defeats Salvati; Hornbeck Kayoes White in Second

Libby Manzollilo, 131, Jeffersonville, packed too many guns—mostly of the left hook variety—for Vince Salvati, 131, Troy, and Bob Hornbeck, 161, Poughkeepsie, made a spectacular comeback to knock out Hy White, 162, Albany, in feature five round bouts on last night's B'nai B'rith boxing card at the municipal auditorium.

The net proceeds of the card will go to Jim Pittsley, Poughkeepsie boxer who suffered an injury here several weeks ago.

Manzollilo, originally paired against Harry Smith, the Berkshire Buzzsaw, was sent against Salvati when the car transporting Smith to Kingston was involved in an accident. The card was augmented to include five three-rounders and the usual four fives.

Hornbeck Steals Show

The bout marked Hornbeck's return to action after a temporary retirement following the

Flood-Fusari Bout At Garden Tonight
New York, May 10 (AP)—Young Jimmy Flood, the Manhattan middleweight, and welterweight contender Charlie Fusari of Irvington, N. J., clash tonight in a Madison Square Garden ten-rounder that has captured the fans' fancy.

A crowd of around 15,000 and a gate of $50,000—both would be high for the Garden's winter boxing season—are anticipated for the scrap that marks Flood's first venture against a classy opponent.

The bookmakers don't believe the game, stocky youngster can make the jump. They've established Fusari as the 1 to 2 choice.

Brooklyn (Broadway Arena)—Eugene "Dummy" Hairston, 155, New York, and Jimmy Taylor, 153½, New York, drew, 8.

Siren Now Working
Woodstock, March 10—On Thursday noon when Grant Elwyn, town clerk, threw the switch to sound the usual 12 o'clock siren blast, it failed to work. Two men from Heckeroth's Plumbing and Electric Supply were called and upon investigation of the mechanism in the tower, they discovered that the sudden drop in temperature after Wednesday's rain storm had caused it to freeze. Siren Now Working Woodstock, March 10—On Thursday noon when Grant Elwyn, town clerk, threw the switch to sound the usual 12 o'clock siren blast, it failed to work. At 2 p. m. a test was made of the siren and it was again in working order.

Coplon Attorneys

To Apply for Bail

New York, March 10 (AP)—Attorneys for Judith Coplon will ask the United States Circuit Court of Appeals today to let her out of jail on bond during the legal battle to overthrow her conviction for spying.

The government is expected to fight the move to the last ditch on the ground that the 28-year-old ex-government girl now has a tremendous incentive to flee the country.

In international law, espionage is considered only a political crime—and political refugees cannot be extradited like common criminals.

Miss Coplon, who was sentenced to 15 years in prison yesterday, has been held behind bars for three days. She was convicted Tuesday by a federal jury that found her guilty. With Soviet engineer Valentin A. Gubichev, of plotting to spy against the United States.

Gubichev, who has been given his choice of going back to Russia within two weeks or doing 15 years himself, also has been held without bail since the verdict.

Judge Sylvester J. Ryan denied new bail for both at the sentencing yesterday, and their attorneys at once filed notice of appeal with the Circuit Court. This gave the higher court jurisdiction over the case and will allow it—if it desires—to grant bond without regard for Judge Ryan's refusal.

When asked yesterday afternoon, however, Circuit Judge Thomas W. Swan, sitting alone, reserved decision and told the lawyers they could file briefs with the court today.

But he asked the government prosecutor, John M. Kelley, Jr., what amounts he would suggest for bail. Kelley named no figure, but said they should be very high, considering the impossibility of extraditing Miss Coplon if she should leave the country.

Gubichev gave no hint yesterday whether he would accept the offer to go home to stay here and fight the conviction. Since he is a Soviet official, the question probably is up to Moscow. His attorney, however, filed notice of ap-

Governor Dewey reappointed Riordan

Will Try New Drug

New York, March 10 (AP)—Three-year-old Scotty Hanson, slowly dying from leukemia, arrived in New York by air from Minnesota this morning for emergency treatment with the new drug ACTH. He came through the help of Senator Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.), who asked New York's Memorial Hospital to admit him. Memorial is one of the few hospitals in the world that has experimented with the rare and costly drug in blood diseases. The little boy with blond hair and blue eyes, is the son of a railroad machinist at Two Harbors, Minn. His malady is a form of blood cancer, and last November he was given only six months to live.

Would Control Smoke

Albany, N. Y., March 10 (AP)—A bill authorizing the Public Service Commission to compel railroads to use smoke-controlling devices on locomotives was sent to Governor Dewey yesterday by the Legislature. Republican Assemblyman Samuel Faile of White Plains said the P.S.C. contended it did not have such authority. Faile said he introduced the bill originally in an effort to curtail what he described as a smoke nuisance from engines on the New York Central's Hudson Division, especially at North White Plains.

Charlie Morgan, a one-legged farm worker, gives his five children rations while his wife (left) watches in their shanty at a farm labor camp near Phoenix, Ariz. The rations were rushed in by authorities to aid the families, including nearly 100 children, who were discovered starving. The residents are destitute because a freeze spoiled crops. Says Teacher Lied On Her Connection With Red Party

New York, March 10 (AP)—City Superintendent of Schools William Jansen today sought the ouster of a public school teacher whom he accused of lying about her alleged connections with a group endorsing the Communist movement. Jansen recommended to the Board of Education that the probationary first grade teacher, Mrs. Sylvia M. Schneiderman, be discharged.

He accused her of making a false statement under oath when she applied for a license to teach in the city's public school system. Mrs. Schneiderman, Jansen said, replied "no" to this question on the application: "Are you now or have you ever been affiliated with any organization or group endorsing the Communist, Fascist, or Nazi movement?"

The superintendent said he now had "conclusive evidence" that Mrs. Schneiderman lied when she denied any such affiliation. At Mrs. Schneiderman's home in Brooklyn, a family spokesman said the teacher was ill and could not comment at this time.

But Mrs. Rose Russell, legislative representative of the C.I.O. Teachers Union, came quickly to her defense.

"Dr. Jansen has seized this moment when the general hysteria is again at full tide to launch his vindictive heresy hunt," Mrs. Russell said.

The Board of Education is expected to take up Jansen's recommendation at its March 16 meeting. Because Mrs. Schneiderman still is on her probationary period she may be dismissed without a departmental trial. She would have received permanent tenure in 10 days.

Doctors Want More

London, March 10 (AP)—Rumblings of discontent over the pay scale of Britain's socialized doctors flared into an open strike threat in one London suburb today. The British Medical Journal reported that the Harrow Division of the British Medical Association had passed by a large majority a resolution to withhold services "except for necessary medical attention" unless the government raised fees by July. The Ministry of Health reported that between 18,000 and 19,000 doctors participate in the national health service.

Bandits Slug Woman

New York, March 10 (AP)—Three bandits held up and slugged a 39-year-old woman bookkeeper as she was returning from a bank today and escaped with a $1,900 company payroll. Police said the woman, Mrs. Lena Sardo of (120-04 228th street) Cambria Heights, Queens, was accosted by the three men as she approached the entrance of the R. & F. Coat Company in Brooklyn where she is employed. One of the men drew a gun and demanded the payroll. When the bookkeeper lay down, grabbed the money and the resisted, the gunman knocked her head.

Wants $50,000 to Help In Gladioli Research

Washington, March 10 (AP)—Rep. Smathers (D-Fla.) has urged that Congress appropriate $50,000 for gladioli research in the year starting July 1.

He told a House Appropriations Subcommittee that the money would be an "investment which would return many times the amount to the federal government in income taxes."

His testimony was made public today.

Smathers said the gladioli industry last year had an approximate valuation of $150,000,000 but suffered a disaster loss in the amount of $30,010,346.

Hans Van Ginhoven, of Pat-chogue, N. Y., chairman of a legislative committee of gladioli growers, emphasized that in recent years there has been an alarming increase in various kinds of gladioli industry, the federal government "is not even matching state appropriations. For example, Florida alone this year has appropriated as much money as the federal government has done. The federal government does not have a fulltime man on gladioli research, while Florida has two full-time men working on it."

He said the $25,000 appropriated for gladioli research this year "should go a long way in helping to relieve the situation, but if the present trend of research which has been carried on with the $25,000 is continued, it should take at least $200,000 to get the work done."

Heavy Fighting

Hong Kong, March 10 (AP)—Communist invaders of Weihow Island were forced into the hills of tiny Weihow Island today but heavy fighting continued, independent news reports to Chinese newspapers said.

3 Days Bring 3 Babies For Louisiana Mother

Jonesville, La., March 10 (AP)—Three days—three babies. That's the way it was for Mrs. Leslie Hardie, the 36-year-old wife of a houseboat fisherman. Mrs. Leslie, already the mother of seven other children, gave birth to triplets at the rate of one child a day for three consecutive days. "I examined her and knew twins were coming," said Dr. N. G. Nasif who delivered the babies.
